INDIAN VILLAGE 41

Come learn about, celebrate and immerse yourself in the culture and heritage of the original New Yorkers at the Iroquois Indian Village, located closest to the Gate 4 entrance. This section of the Fairgrounds has been dedicated to Six Nations programs since 1928.

Every day, you can experience the traditional music, dance, crafts and customs of the Iroquois. Be sure to check out the new Turtle Mound, where traditional dances take place daily. The Turtle Mound was built to resemble the turtle, an animal sacred to the Iroquois. Visit the Cookhouse for great food.

PAN-AFRICAN VILLAGE

Come to the Pan-African Village 39 for food, music, crafts and culture. The music stage in the Village is busy every day with entertainment.

The Butter Sculpture is presented by Wegmans. ★ (GRID E-4)

More Music:

Many of the Fair's food and drink vendors bring in solo musicians or full bands to enhance the experience. Visit www.NYSFair.NY.gov for the performance schedule.

Exciting Rides:

Wade Shows, the nation's second largest carnival operator, brings more than 50 thrilling and immaculately maintained rides to the Fair, along with fun games and classic carnival food. From hair-raising rides to fun thrills for younger riders, there's excitement for everyone on the Wade Shows Midway.
Download the FunTagg app for iOS or Android to purchase ride-all-day wristbands.

Getting Around:

The Fair's trams run daily continuously from 10 am to 10 pm, and ADA trams run daily continuously from 9 am to 11 pm. There are nine stops noted on the map. Trams are free, courtesy of Chevrolet.

Butterize Yourself!

Scan this QR code to see what you'd look like as a butter sculpture, and share the animation on Instagram and Facebook!
Use Hashtags: #NYSFair & #ButterizeMe

Animals, Animals, Animals!

Thousands of animals visit the Fair each year for competitions. Visit our barns to see cows, chickens, pigs (don't miss the baby pigs – they're so cuuute!), llamas, goats and more. To witness the miracle of birth, make your way to the Dairy Cow Birthing Center where calves are born every day.

Horse Shows:

Horses and riders compete every day – except Labor Day – during the Fair in the Toyota Coliseum. Watch horses run, jump, pull and more! Don't miss the stunning 4- and 6-hitch competitions. Visit the World of Horses exhibit to see horses up close and learn about these amazing animals.

Sports at the Fair?

Yes! Visit the Sports Activity Center outside the Toyota Coliseum to enjoy spirited competition in sports such as basketball, wrestling and boxing.

Fun Food:

There's food to satisfy all tastebuds at the Fairgrounds. Use the Fair's Food and Merchandise Finder to plan your menu (and your shopping). The Food Finder is accessible at this link nysfair.ny.gov/food-drink/food-finder or by scanning this QR code

25 Cent Milk:

The New York State Milk Bar Operated by Cornell Cooperative Extension will continue to pour a favorite, flavorful tradition. Enjoy 25 cent perfectly chilled White or Chocolate Milk cups in the Dairy Products Building. During the last three days of the fair – September 3, 4 and 5 – Strawberry Milk will replace White milk.

The Great Potato Booth:

Visit the Horticulture Building to score a $1 Baked or Sweet Potato with all of the fixings!

Taste NY:

The Taste NY program highlights some of the best food grown and made in New York. Sample the flavors of New York and find new favorites in the Taste NY sampling area, located in the Horticulture Building.

Meet the Police:

The New York State Police exhibit features non-stop performances by Troopers and their canine partners, demonstrating everything from underwater recovery to rappelling down a tall building. Solve a CSI-style mystery and see police dogs and cars up close.

Daily Schedule:

Noon and 4:45 pm: Vehicle rollover demonstration

12:30 pm, 2:45 pm & 5:15 pm: Underwater Recovery Team demonstration

1:15 pm & 3:15 pm: Canine/ Bomb Disposal Unit demonstration

2 pm, 4 pm & 6 pm: Special Operations Response Team demonstration

Meet the Air National Guard:

The 174th Attack Wing of the New York Air National Guard will fill Exposition Center with displays explaining what the men and women of the unit do to protect America.
